

INSTEP-WFU Cambridge

Barry Colfer

Junior Research Fellow, St. Edmunds College, University of Cambridge

Education:

Bachelor of Business and Law, University College Dublin

Master of Philosophy, International Relations and Politics, University of Cambridge

PhD, International Relations and Politics, University of Cambridge

Research Interests:

European Trade Union Relations

Labour Economics and Politics

European Politics

International Relations

Selected Publications:

'After the UK, Ireland is the country with the most to lose', in 'Roundtable: The European Left After Brexit', Renewal, Vol.25, No. 1.

'What does the EU with the UK in it look like in 2025?', workshop report, The French-German Future Dialogue, 2015, Robert Bosch Stiftung, DGAP.

'Implications for Ireland from the UK withdrawal from the EU', E-International Relations, available at: <http://www.e-ir.info/2016/12/03/brexit-a-global-perspective/>

Other Selected Academic Appointments:

Visiting Researcher – American College of Athens, Greece

Visiting Researcher – European Trade Union Institute, Brussels

Languages:

English

French